

2018-2019 OVERTON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PARENT/FAMILY INVOLVEMENT POLICY

Overton Elementary School is a Title I school. This means that Rowan-Salisbury Schools provide Overton with federally sponsored dollars to address student achievement. These funds can be used to hire professionals and/or purchase academic materials and programs. These funds can also be used to provide or enhance parent involvement initiatives that give support to our students and their families. The Overton family is committed to providing an educational experience that promotes academic excellence, positive peer interaction, emotional growth, and open communication.

Overton Elementary School will:

- *Convene an annual meeting to explain Title I expectations/services. This meeting will also address initiatives, introduce staff, review the focus of our school and share upcoming opportunities for parental involvement.

- *Provide information on NC Standard Course of Study. Share data from Reading 3D, Beginning-of-Grade testing, ACCESS, End-of-Grade testing, and local assessments such as Achieve 3000 and Discovery Education.

- *Use a variety of communication methods to inform parents and the community of school-wide activities and accomplishments. These methods will include:

- *Twitter

- *Email

- *Remind

- *Class Dojo

- *Connect Ed calls

- *Progress Reports (4)

- *Report Cards (4)

- *Parent/Teacher Conferences

- *School Improvement Team (SIT)

- *Parent/Teacher Association (PTA)

- *Establish a School-Home Compact to promote collaboration between the parent/family and school.

- *Conduct parent involvement activities to assist with the education of their child at home.

- *Notify parents/guardians that they may request and receive information regarding the professional qualifications of their child's teacher or paraprofessionals.
